

Laurie's Corner

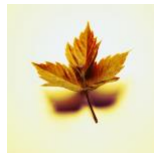

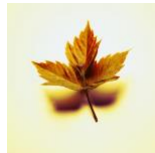

Well, school has started, Fall is on its way – maybe cooler weather too!

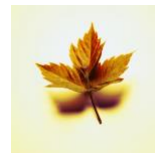

September 3rd is Labor Day. The first Labor Day observance took place in New York City on September 5, 1882 with a parade in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union for a “workingmen’s holiday.” Oregon was the first state to officially celebrate Labor Day, and the federal government made it a legal holiday in 1894, to be held on the first Monday in September.

September 9-15th is International Housekeeper’s Week. We are so thankful for our wonderful housekeepers.

September 13 is Grandparent’s Day. If you are fortunate enough to still have grandparents, hope you take the time to go see them, or send them a card. Mexican Independence Day is September 16th. In 1808, when Napoleon invaded Spain, the Mexicans seized the opportunity to overthrow the Spanish Rule. The Independence battle lasted for 10 long years.

God Bless Sharron
